Ben Reynolds is NOT a vampire.

After a scouting expedition by our investigation team here at 2EastTabloid, it was confirmed that Ben Reynolds is not in fact a vampire. The picture above clearly shows that been has a reflection in the mirror and so he must in fact be a mortal.

Max's Movie Review!!!!!!

It's time for this month's special edition of Max's Movie Review!

Today we will be reviewing the movie Sharknado. While overall I really enjoyed the movie, I think there were too many plot holes. For one thing, one of the scenes showed the streets being flooded, but we see the characters walking through the same streets with nothing but puddles on the ground! That's bullshit! And if you look closely, you can tell that given the pressure gradient in tornadoes and the mass of sharks (in kilograms, of course) then they clearly could not have been flying as high as they did. And there's not enough Tesla in it, either. Just full of bullshit, I tell you! I rate the movie a solid 9/10.
